SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, every year in South Dakota many lives are lost and extensive property damage is suffered through fire and loss of our natural resources and other national and personal property is particularly damaging in times of national emergency such as we are now experiencing; and

WHEREAS, many of our devastating fires are of the type that can be prevented; and

WHEREAS, by careful planning and action involving inspection and removal of possible fire hazards the number of fires may be greatly lessened;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week beginning April 12 and ending April 19, 1952, as

CLEAN-UP WEEK

in South Dakota, and do request that each of our citizens take an active part in the removal of all fire hazards in our homes, stores, public buildings and fields, and urge that each of you assist in guarding our natural resources against destruction by fire, and that all civic bodies join together in the elimination of fire hazards.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 11th day of April, 1952.

Sigurd Anderson
